

The North Pole Express

VOLUNTEER LAST MINUTE DETAILS

WHAT TO WEAR: With the exception of CONDUCTORS, PLATFORM MANAGERS, and READERS, everyone wears Black pants and a white turtleneck or shirt and black shoes (100% black sneakers are allowed).

IF YOU WEAR SNEAKERS OR JEANS YOU WILL BE SENT HOME!

Conductors : You wear a navy blue or black suit coat or blazer, black or navy blue pants, white shirt (collar or turtleneck are fine).

Platform Managers: You wear a blue or black suit with a warm overcoat. A conductor's hat will be provided to you. Gloves are highly recommended.

READERS: You will be wearing a fleece nightshirt. If you get hot easily, you may want to consider wearing shorts and a cool top under sweatpants and sweatshirt. You can change into in the service car. Your call. Feel free to wear goofy slippers.

INSTRUCTIONS: If you are looking for instructions or need information on what time to report or what your job entails, please contact Bethann Lynch at bethanddave@comcast.net

SNOW: Snow is predicted for Saturday which will make the ride very magical. The ride will go off rain, snow or shine, so please be there. There is not a lot of snow predicted, so commuting should not be a problem.

11:25 Ride: If you are working on the train for the first ride, you need to report to the trainyard which is parked on the other side of Route 1. We will be the biggest setup there. You need to be there no later than 10:30 a.m. The equipment is scheduled to be moved at 10:45 and we need to be sure we have everyone.

EVERYONE REPORTS TO THE SERVICE CAR WHICH IS LOCATED NEXT TO THE LOCOMOTIVE TO GET THEIR COSTUMES AND ASSIGNMENTS.

Characters, platform managers and merchandise people: You all report to the Polar Village and the platform.

Ride Time	Time to Report
11:25	10:30
1:15	12:30
3:15	2:30
5:30	4:45
