

The ICS PTO is pleased to announce ðAnansi, Spiderman of Africaö will be presented to ICS Pre-K thru 4th graders on January 10th, @ 1:30 PM, ICS GYM

Parents are welcome! Half-day pre-K students are invited to return to school with their parents. Proceeds from the PTO Fall Fundraiser made this program possible. Thank you for your participation!

Anansi, Spiderman of Africa!

A Tangled Web of Trickster Tales

". . . with its beautifully researched and realized hand-batiked scenery, its homage-ic, yet imaginative puppets, its clever and humorous script, its well-chosen tales, and its masterful performance style, this show is a perfect blend of traditional and contemporary. Crowd-pleasing for both children and adults."

É . . . Review Committee, Union Internationale de la Marionette

A side-splitting selection of famous folktales from Africa starring Anansi the Spider, whose appetite always overrules his intellect. Anansi loves to eat and hates to work, so he tries to trick other animals out of their food. But there's no free lunch for Anansi, because all of his schemes leave him hungrier than ever!

Anansi is one of the classic trickster characters in world folklore. These comical African folktales are both entertaining and instructive; because he puts his own desires ahead of the needs of his community, Anansi often ends up exiled to the corner of the room.

Anansi, Spiderman of Africa was awarded the Citation of Excellence from the American Center of the Union Internationale de la Marionette, the highest honor in American puppetry.