

On Tuesday evening, May 3, 2011, four Immaculate Conception School eighth students were honored by the Newburyport #909 Lodge of Elks. This ceremony was held as part of Youth Week. The students wrote essays titled Why I Am Proud to be an American.

The winners were Liam Rogers (First Place), Kate Anderson-Song (Second Place), Morgan Johnston (Third Place), and Molly Kelley (Fourth Place). As a member of the Elks, Mrs. Pearson presented each student with a framed certificate and a savings bond.
