haiku, hip hop and hotdogs!
poetry comes alive!

Haiku, HipHop and Hotdogs weaves favorite children's poems into a seamless tapestry of art and entertainment for all audiences. View the natural world through a child's eye in "Every Time I Climb a Tree!" Imagine a symphony composed entirely by the swimming of "The Goldfish!" Thrill to the exploits of aerodynamic sausages in "Fearless Flying Hotdogs!" Dance with the "Funky Snowman!" "Keep a Poem in Your Pocket" and "above all" "Do Not Approach an Emu!" The poems of Jack Prelutsky, Beatrice Schenk de Regniers, David McCord, Geoff Hewitt and others are featured in this exciting new creation from the award-winning Crabgrass Puppet Theatre.

This will be presented to our Pre-K through 4th graders. Parents welcome! Half-day pre-K students are invited to return to school with their parents.

This event is made possible due to the success of the PTO Fall Fundraiser!
