

Summer Reading Project Grade 7

Directions: Read each book choice and the choice of projects for each. A description of each book is on the back. Select one book and one project to complete for the book you read this summer. Please be prepared to present your project to the class. Due Thursday, September 6, 2018.

Choice One: Crispin: The Cross of Lead

By AVI

Choose one project to complete:

1. Create a hanging mobile about the main character Crispin. There should be at least five items on the mobile. Write an 5-6 sentence explanation on the back of each item why you included this item.
2. Create a comic strip of Crispin's escape from his tiny village to the world beyond. Provide at least nine frames of the important events that took place in the book. Include a caption about what is taking place in each frame. The comic should be detailed and colorful.
3. Create a "Life-Size Character". Choose a character from Crispin and create a "life-size" paper version of the character. Add clothing and facial features to the "body" to portray the character you choose. Now analyze the character focusing on the character's thoughts and feelings, looks, deeds, and actions. Write a paragraph about each of the above, cut out, and glue around your character's body.

Choice Two: The Watsons Go To Birmingham by Christopher Paul Curtis

Choose one project to complete:

1. Create a Word Cloud Collage of words or phrases from the novel that describe the novel. You may select to cover the entire novel or focus on a single element (character, setting, theme). The Word Collage should fill an 8 ½ x 11 piece of paper, be detailed, colorful, and neatly done. You may use wordclouds.com to create your collage.
2. Imagine you are allowed to give one character some advice or words of wisdom. Write a friendly letter to a character from the book that offers wise advice that can help them in the novel. Be sure to use specific evidence from the novel to support your advice.
3. Create a puppet show about one of the Watson's adventures in the book. The puppets should be made by you. Use any materials you have around the house. Popsicle sticks make good puppets then dress them up. Write a one-two page script about the adventure. You may also create a "stage" for your puppet show.

Choice Three: Number the Stars

By Lois Lowry

Choose one project to complete:

1. Create a "Theme in a Bottle". Annemarie wants to express and share what she has learned from her experience to help others understand important life lessons. Write a letter from her point of view. The letter should express her feelings about life lessons she has learned throughout the novel. The letter should be two-three paragraphs in length. You may type or handwrite the letter. Decorate a two-liter bottle with symbols that relate to Annemarie and the theme of the story. Curl the letter up and place inside the bottle making sure not to push it all the way down into the bottle.
2. Create a poster advertising the book. The poster should be no larger than 11 x 17. Include at least three pictures, a paragraph about the book, and a paragraph of your review of the book. The poster should be neat, detailed, and colorful. The paragraphs should be 5-7 sentences each.

Choice Four: I Am Malala

By Malala Yousafzai

Choose one project to complete:

1. Create a six page scrapbook about Malala's life. Each page should focus on a part of her life. Each page should have at least one picture and a paragraph about this part of her life. The scrapbook should have a cover with a picture and your name.
2. Write a letter to Malala discussing your thoughts about her courage for standing up for what she believes. Would you be able to do what Malala choose to do? Discuss how Malala's actions have changed the world in regards to education girls. The letter should be in friendly letter format and be two paragraphs in length discussing the two points above. You may type or handwrite the letter. Friendly letter example:

Summer Reading Project Book Descriptions - Grade 7

Choice One: Crispin: The Cross of Lead

By AVI

In fourteenth-century England a nameless thirteen-year-old orphaned peasant boy, who thought he had little to lose, finds himself with even less. Accused of a crime he did not commit, he has been declared a "wolf's head," meaning that anyone can kill him on sight. "Asta's son" learns from the village priest that his Christian name is Crispin and that his parents' origins — and fates — might be more complex than he ever imagined. To remain alive the boy must flee his tiny village — the only world he's ever known — taking with him his mother's cross of lead. Crispin finds freedom from a corrupt steward when he befriends a larger-than-life juggler. An action-packed narrative follows his frantic flight across 14th-century England. Readers might not realize that they're learning about England's peasant revolt of 1381 until they're hooked on this great story!

Choice Two: The Watsons Go To Birmingham by Christopher Paul Curtis

Enter the world of ten-year-old Kenny and his family, the Weird Watsons of Flint, Michigan. When Momma and Dad decide it's time for a visit to Grandma, Dad comes home with the amazing Ultra-Glide, and the Watsons head South to Birmingham, Alabama...toward one of the darkest moments in America's history. A hilarious, touching, and tragic novel about civil rights and the impact of violence on one African American family.

Choice Three: Number the Stars

By Lois Lowry

As German troops begin their campaign to "relocate" all the Jews of Denmark, 10-year-old Annemarie Johansen's family takes in Annemarie's best friend, Ellen Rosen, and conceals her by pretending she's part of the family. Then, through Annemarie's eyes, readers watch as the Danish Resistance smuggles almost the entire Jewish population of Denmark — nearly 7,000 people — across the sea to Sweden.

Choice Four: I Am Malala

By Malala Yousafzai

Malala Yousafzai was only ten years old when the Taliban took control of her region. They said music was a crime. They said women weren't allowed to go to the market. They said girls couldn't go to school. Raised in a once-peaceful area of Pakistan transformed by terrorism, Malala was taught to stand up for what she believes. So she fought for her right to be educated. And on October 9, 2012, she nearly lost her life for the cause: She was shot point-blank while riding the bus on her way home from school. No one expected her to survive. Now Malala is an international symbol of peaceful protest and the youngest ever exclusive photos and material, we hear firsthand the remarkable story of a girl who knew from a young age that she wanted to change the world — and did.
